OLIVER JEFFERS

LOST and FOUND

Once there was a boy

and one day he found a penguin at his door.

The boy didn't know where it had come from

but it began to follow him everywhere.

The penguin looked sad and the boy thought it must be lost.

So the boy decided to help the penguin find its way home.

He checked in the Lost and Found Office.
But no one was missing a penguin.

He asked some birds if they knew where the penguin came from.

But they ignored him.
Some birds are like that.

The boy asked his duck.

But the duck floated away.
He didn't know.

That night, the boy couldn't sleep for disappointment. He wanted to help the penguin but he didn't know how.

The next morning he discovered that penguins come from the South Pole. But how could he get there?

He ran down to the harbour and asked a big ship to take them to the South Pole. But his voice was much too small to be heard over the ship's horn.

So together, he and the penguin would row to the South Pole. The boy took his rowboat out of the cupboard and they tested it for size and strength.

They packed everything they would need...

and together they pushed the rowboat out to sea.

They rowed south for many days...

and nights with the boy telling stories all the way. The penguin listened to everything that the boy said. ★

They floated through good weather and bad,

when the waves were as big as mountains...
