

Dear Reception,

I am writing to ask for your help .It is not easy being a superhero. I know you have heard all about the evil pea. I am very speedy and very strong, but he is very sneaky and very mean. I am really tired after chasing him all around the supermarket. I am worried that there might be other evil peas, but I need a little bit of time to rest. Do you think you could help me? Do you know any other superheroes?

I look forward to hearing from you.

From Supertato
